Bringing Holiday Cheer to our Seniors!

The Dance Factory Holiday Tour Team started this year's tour with a Performance at the Princeton Elks on Friday Night. On Saturday December 13, 2008 the Team hopped on a school bus to travel around the area visiting nursing homes and senior centers to spread some Holiday Cheer. Thirty dancers performed a 25 minute non-stop holiday song and dance routine that brought smiles to all who watched.

The Winter Holidays and are a great time to visit with family and friends but it is also a time to think about bringing joy to the world. Director Kelly Markowski and teacher Dawn VanNess choreographed a holiday performance to entertain and connect with the residents. "Our dancers love to perform and to see the seniors smiling, clapping, and tapping their feet to the music" said Kelly Markowski. "It is a wonderful experience that we look forward to. It fills our hearts with joy."

According to Pam McDermott, owner of the Dance Factory: "It is a way for us to give back to the community and a wonderful way for the girls to brighten the days of others by giving the gift of dance, holiday music, and joy to so many during the holiday season"!
